

GRANT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME AND RETREAT

ARTS, HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
25 APRIL - 02 JULY 2023

Cohort 1 (early career)

25 APRIL 2023

Introduction: Workshop 1

17 Mill Lane, Meeting Room B, 9.00–13.00

This session focuses on developing a convincing justification for a proposed project. Participants will also learn how to construct strong statements of the aims and objectives and how to formulate and present research questions. Lunch will be provided.

04 MAY 2023

Research Leadership and Team Building

Zoom Session, 10.00–12.30

This session will explore the role of research leadership in managing a project and building a team, with tips and discussion on how to create an inclusive research environment. We will also consider the funders' requirements pertaining to diversity and inclusion.

16 MAY 2023

Workshop 2

17 Mill Lane, Meeting Room B, 9.00–13.00

This session will discuss how to present the key elements of a competitive methodology section and construct a clear workplan including work allocation, appropriate milestones, deliverables and outputs. Lunch will be provided.

25 MAY 2023

Impact and Public Engagement

Zoom Session, 10.00–13.00

This session will begin with an introduction to and examples of research impact. The second half will allow for attendees to discuss specific questions regarding impact design and development.

06 JUNE 2023

Workshop 3

17 Mill Lane, Seminar Room E, 13.00–16.00

This session will enable participants to identify expected types of impact for their funder of choice, understand the importance of strong impact pathway planning and how to develop a strong plan that embeds impact throughout a research proposal. Lunch will be provided.

15 JUNE 2023

The Art of Persuasive Writing

Zoom Session, 9.00–13.00

This session will focus on the effectiveness of grant writing through better awareness of the techniques of persuasive writing.

30 JUNE - 01 JULY 2023

Writing Retreat

HYATT HOTEL EDDINGTON

The grant writing retreat will begin with an introduction and include space for participants to set writing goals for themselves. There will then be dedicated writing time for participants to progress their project proposal in a supportive environment. There will be opportunities for feedback and discussion and then the session will close with action planning of next steps. Overnight accommodation and meals will be provided.

Cohort 2 (established)

25 APRIL 2023

Introduction: Workshop 1

17 Mill Lane, Meeting Room, B12.00-16.00

This session will focus on developing a convincing justification for a proposed project. Participants will also learn how to construct strong statements of the aims and objectives and how to formulate and present research questions. Lunch will be provided.

04 MAY 2023

Research Leadership and Team Building

ZOOM Session, 10.00-12.30

This session will explore the role of research leadership in managing a project and building a team, with tips and discussion on how to create an inclusive research environment. We will also consider the funders' requirements pertaining to diversity and inclusion.

16 MAY 2023

Workshop 2

17 Mill Lane Meeting Room B, 12.00-16.00

This session will discuss how to present the key elements of a competitive methodology section and construct a clear workplan including work allocation, appropriate milestones, deliverables and outputs. Lunch will be provided.

25 MAY 2023

Impact and Public Engagement

Zoom Session, 10.00-13.00

This session will begin with an introduction to and examples of research impact. The second half will allow for attendees to discuss specific questions regarding impact design and development.

06 JUNE 2023

Workshop 3

17 Mill Lane, Seminar Room E, 09.00-13.00

This session will enable participants to identify expected types of impact for their funder of choice, understand the importance of strong impact pathway planning and how to develop a strong plan that embeds impact throughout a research proposal. Lunch will be provided

15 JUNE 2023

The Art of Persuasive Writing

Zoom Session, 13.00-16.00

This session will focus on the effectiveness of grant writing through better awareness of the techniques of persuasive writing.

01 JULY - 02 JULY 2023

Writing Retreat

HYATT HOTEL EDDINGTON

The grant writing retreat will begin with an introduction and include space for participants to set writing goals for themselves. There will then be dedicated writing time for participants to progress their project proposal in a supportive environment. There will be opportunities for feedback and discussion and then the session will close with action planning of next steps. Overnight accommodation and meals will be provided.